Vanessa Timmons from the Indian Education Committee (IEC) announced the IEC will be hosting a taco sale on Friday, April 8 from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. at the Agassiz Building, 1305 9 Avenue South. All proceeds go to the Indian Education Committee.

Mr. Strand asked that Fargo Police Liaison Cristie Jacobsen speak with regards to peaceful protests, conduct and expectations. Officer Jacobsen discussed ordinances required by public demonstrations that will be provided to the Ralphia May demonstration planners.

The annual harm reduction seminar will take place on May 11 and 12 at Shooting Star Casino, free and open to the community with breakfast and lunch included. Opportunities will be available for Naloxone certification.

At 7:05 p.m. Mr. Strand moved the Board adjourn for a recess to further discuss a public statement regarding Ralphia May. The Native American Commission is to re-adjourn if there is any recommendation from the Board.

After recess: All Members present. Chair Alexander presiding.

The Native American Commission’s official statement on Comedian Ralphia May and his anticipated performance at the Fargo Theater was read as follows:

The Fargo Native American Commission, in the spirit of healing and reconciliation, challenges Comedian Ralphia May and others to heighten their sensitivity and awareness.

The damage from historical trauma and unresolved grief is compounded by demeaning, marginalizing, and destructive “humor”.

We ask our community to continue to aspire to higher standards to protect the human right of dignity and respect.

The Native American Commission’s mission works to strengthen the Native American community to promote understanding, recognition and respect for cultures to enrich the community as a whole.
